THE REV. S. ALONZO BRIGHT, D. E.
Superintendent of the New Mexico English Mission

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the New Mexico English Mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

BRETHREN:

It is related that one of our bishops once said that the office of a bishop was a good job for 47 months and then there was a month (while the General Conference was in session) when it was not so nice.

I have no complaint to make of the superintendency of the New Mexico English Mission but it would be a nicer job if it was not necessary to write a report. This is not due to a lack of material, but in part to the embarrassment occasioned by so many things that tempt you to give them utterance.

I arrived in Albuquerque on October 7th, 1910. The annual Meeting of the Mission had adjourned September 11th, leaving three weeks between the adjournment and my arrival. During this interval my predecessor held Quarterly Meetings at Roswell and Raton.

On Sunday, October 9th, I preached morning and evening in Albuquerque and from that time until now I have been on the job with the exception of two Sundays, one of which was spent on a visit with my family in Kansas, and the other, last Sunday, at the session of the Arizona Mission, by order of the Field Secretary of the Home Missionary and Church Extension Society, to represent the Society at the Anniversary.

Since coming I have visited every charge in the Mission from one to four times, preached 124 times, held 85 Quarterly Conferences and one District Conference, besides doing much other work not easy, and possibly not necessary to mention here.

The wearisome thing about this position is not the work; that is usually a delight, but the long distances that must be traversed. I want to say that were it not for the uniform kindness of the railways, the Superintendent of this Mission would hardly be able to do the work expected of him. I have not made an exact computation, but I fancy about all the salary allowed would be consumed in railway fares, if they were paid at the ordinary rates. These companies deserve our thanks for the favors they grant to our work in this particular.

New Mexico is just now in the turmoil and excitement of taking her place as one of the States of this Union. There has been a bitter fight over the constitution, and the time will come when citizens of the proposed Commonwealth will rise up and call blessed a little group of men, whose names may not figure in history, but who notwithstanding fearful odds, dire threats, malicious misrepresentation, and discouraging handicaps, persisted until the "little blue ballot" is within reach of the voters at the first election in the new state. Expectation is on tip toe, and the promises that have been made in the name of statehood are as many and luxuriant as the foliage of a tropic forest and many of them are destined to wither and die.

Oklahoma is pointed to as a parallel case and we are told that in population we will duplicate that commonwealth. Twenty-one years ago I had some part in the bringing in of Wyoming as a state and I would modestly suggest to our people in New Mexico that they at least consider in their calculations, the experience of both Oklahoma and Wyoming, for New Mexico reminds me more of the latter than of the former.

That there will be great growth in this new state, immediately, I have no doubt. Immense wealth, resources as yet hardly dreamed of are within her boundaries. The valleys of her more important rivers are destined to be occupied by and make wealthy a denser population than is supported by agriculture where irrigation is not the source of fruitfulness. I believe that in the Rio Grande, Pecos and other valleys, every ten acres of irrigable land will support in comfort a family, but it is a long stretch to travel, and there is much to do before that result is realized.

The mineral wealth of New Mexico has hardly been even prospected. But these matters are being so widely exploited by those who have nothing else to do, that I shall dismiss them with this impression, New Mexico is destined to show in her future a somewhat different type of society than is found in other places. The three great sources of wealth that will finally possess this country are irrigated agriculture and horticulture, mining and stock raising.

Those as any thoughtful person will tell you are not poor men's pursuits. It takes capital to engage in any of them. Hence in this state we are confronted by a smaller, but, on account of their wealth and control of resources, powerful class, and a larger class of employed or salaried people. To me the very nature of this land makes this result inevitable.

I have said this to impress you with the fact that this is not only missionary ground, but is destined to remain such for a long time. Even now this condition makes its demand upon us. We should be at work in the Mogollon, Santa Rita and other large mining camps. These propositions may not last for more than a decade, or they may endure much longer, but men and women are living and dying, marrying, and children are born and grow up in these places, and unless missionaries carry to them the Gospel, they do not hear it and forget it.

These great irrigation projects are another neglected field. The Church that goes in and endures the privations of the days of poverty will be remembered in the coming days of prosperity and permanency.

I have in mind a church in this Mission, organized eight years ago with eleven members representing six families. The church building was dedicated five years since, being helped by a donation from the Church Extension Society with a gift of $1,000. The first year of its existence it gave $31 for benevolences; the second $61; the third $115, the fourth $285. The Home Missionary Board has invested $2,400 in this Church and the Church has paid back in conference collections $3,100, and is now self supporting. The beginning of that organization was in the midst of bitter prejudice. It is now a commanding force in the second city of the state and has an actual membership of 250.

A few weeks since I was permitted to attend its Sabbath school. The mud in the streets was six inches deep. It was a sultry Sunday morning. There were 356 in attendance, the largest Sunday School I have seen in New Mexico. This is only one instance and there are opportunities in many places where this can be duplicated.

It is people from Methodist homes in the states east that are in this state but they have invested their all. The investment in many instances is not yet profitable and these people cannot support those who preach the gospel.

Another feature of our condition. This land seems to be peculiarly adapted to cure the dreaded scourge consumption. Thousands are in New Mexico and alive who cannot live outside this particular belt. The majority of these must live by the labor of their hands, sick in body, and homesick body and soul, the struggle is impossible of being pictured; it amounts to tragedy.

There are but five self supporting Methodist Episcopal Churches in this Mission, four of them in New Mexico and one in El Paso. Besides these five pastors we have sixteen men at work, and their presence on the field is made possible by funds from the "Board of Home Missions."

RATON

At the gateway of the new state you will find the beautiful little city of Raton. It has the most handsome church building in the Mission and has had a year of prosperity under the pastorate of the Rev. Charles J. Dickey. All claims are met in full and a reduction of the church debt will be one of the items in the report from this charge. The closing weeks of the conference year are being spent in a union revival effort and I am told that a genuine forward movement in things spiritual is resulting. There is a net gain in membership of nineteen reported at the last Quarterly Conference. The Quarterly Conference enthusiastically invited the pastor's return and it is sincerely hoped that Sister Dickey's health will permit another year's work by this able pastor in Raton.

FRENCH AND MAXWELL

The next charge on the line of the Santa Fe is French and Maxwell. E. L. Baker is our diligent pastor. There has been a net gain in membership on this charge of nineteen. French is at the crossing of the Santa Fe and Dawson Railways. An irrigation project has been hanging fire here for months. The old company has quit business and a new company demands $22.50 per acre to furnish water, this after the settlers have purchased land and water rights.

It occurs to us that there should be some way to protect the public from such swindlers.

Last year it was reported that there was $3,000 subscription for a new church. The greater part of the subscription has proven unavailable. A grant from the Church Extension Society of $1,000 has not yet been paid because of lack of funds. Some provisions were said to have been made that were not kept, and a most discouraging set of complications has arisen. I cannot see how more could have been done by our pastor than has been done. The church is needed in that community. There has been too much money spent on the project for it to be allowed to fail. It is a strategic point, but what the outcome will be is hard to determine. How Brother Baker has lived through it and done the work he has I cannot imagine, but he has done it and has left his impress for good upon the town and surrounding country.

SPRINGER

Springer has had G. E. McCargar in charge this year. Their new church is a beauty. Of the $1,600 subscribed at the time of dedication more than $1,000 has been collected and paid.

Twenty-six members from this charge were set apart to French at the beginning of the year but the charge will report within four of as many members as were on the roll at the beginning of the year.

SANTA FE

Santa Fe has had the ministry of B. F. Summers. It is a hard field. We shall not particularize, but there has been a gain in membership, a reduction of the debt, the Sabbath School and League are doing good work and the charge will make a good report.

NARA VISA

Let us go back now and begin at the Texas line, and our first point is the Nara Visa Circuit. I shall not attempt to give its boundaries, for I am a bit too far along in life to stay on the hurricane deck of a cayuse and keep up with that energetic Scandahoovian who has been doing his best to build up an old fashioned Presiding Elder's District under the nose of the Superintendent. As near as I can get at it, the charge reaches from Hudson to Texas and from the Rock Island Railway to within sight of some of the land marks of Clayton. and remember it is a sick man that is doing this. If he were well probably he would do like some other people. Bishop, if you can find some more sick Swedes of this same brand I wish you would send them to New Mexico.

I had the pleasure of dedicating the new church in Nara Visa on Aug. 12-14 and found the matters of the charge in good shape. We need two if not three men on that field next year.

CLAYTON

Clayton the county seat of Union County is a nice little town. We have a good church and a nice comfortable parsonage. On my first visit there I found an enthusiastic church and a pastor who seemed to have the situation well in hand. I was much surprised to receive a letter some time later from the pastor that left nothing for me to do but to consent to his going away. I had been given no hint of desire or dissatisfaction until it was put to me in such a way that I could only say "yes" to a practically completed trade. The one who came had written to me before I left Manhattan begging, imploring me to make a place for him in New Mexico, feeling called of God to this field. He came and remained six months and presumably had another call, at least a telegram from pastor and people that was "phoned" me in the Mountains of Northern New Mexico, informed me that another "flitting" was arranged for, "Wire consent at once."

Later came a letter from the "Board" asking that no preacher be sent until conference as they wanted to pay off their church debt. But the preacher had already been sent. They have paid off their debt, have improved their property but the first two pastors had been paid in full and I fear that the third will be short and that the benevolences will suffer.

DES MOINES, FOLSOM AND JOHNSON'S MESA

Des Moines, Folsom and Johnson's Mesa Circuit has had preaching this year by T. J. Crumley. On one of my visits the pastor and superintendent secured a subscription of $600 for a church at Des Moines. I believe a good and self supporting charge can be built up in this territory but it must have more than absent treatment to bring about the desired result.

TUCUMCARI

C. F. Lucas has been at Tucumcari this year and he reports that all obligations will be met in full. We are a very little folk in Tucumcari and there seems to be a decided opinion that we are not needed in that town. The fourth Quarterly Conference has adopted resolutions which amount practically to abandonment of the field. Brother Lucas has organized a circuit between Tucumcari and French along the line of the Dawson Railroad and I hope we may send a preacher to this field.

SANTA ROSA

Brother Freeman, so long in New Mexico, went back to Texas shortly after I got on the field. I secured the services of Frank Whiting who has done good work in this charge since the first of last January.

LAS VEGAS

A pleasant place is Las Vegas and a delightful man is E. C. Anderson. He has finished up his second year on the charge and has been unanimously invited to return. There has been a net gain in membership of thirty-one and all the interests of the church have been well cared for, indeed that is a habit Anderson has.

ROSWELL

Roswell the Orchard City of New Mexico, the metropolis of the lower Pecos is the second city in size in the state. Here we have a live working church, a membership of 250, and the largest Methodist Sunday school in the state. On my first visit to Roswell a pastor of a rival church said, "Your church is the leading spiritual force in the town." We ought to build a $40,000 plant in that town this year. If we could have $10,000 from the outside we could do this and it would mean our supremacy in the Pecos valley. Once the immigration into that country was from the South but this is no longer the case and we must go in there to take care of our own. Rival churches lavish money on propositions where there is not nearly so great reason or promise, and it is time we wake up to some opportunities that will not last forever.

Orchards about Roswell are worth from $1,000 to $1,500 per acre, and are a good investment at that price.

FORT SUMNER

Ninety miles up the Pecos is Fort Sumner. Here the government years ago demonstrated something of the richness of the valley. A fairer prospect never greeted the eye than could be seen about Fort Sumner in May last. When the crops were on the point of maturing the dam went out. It was not the fault of the dam, it was the fault of the men who put it in. In fact, it wasn't a dam, it was an obstruction, another of the skin games that have brought so much grief to this state. But nothing I can say about it will help the farmers who lost $100,000 in that six weeks of drought.

We have a devoted little band down there. They are worshipping in Presbyterian property. We must hold that point as one of the cities of New Mexico will be built there. I wish I had the money to employ Bro. Turner exclusively in the work of the ministry as I believe there is one of the places we can duplicate what was set forth earlier in the report.

ESTANCIA AND MOUNTAINAIR

Estancia and Mountainair have been served this year by T.

A. Windsor. I have only been able to visit them twice a year. I think there are possibilities in this field.

BELEN

Belen is our only student appointment in the Mission. It is a railroad town thirty-one miles from Albuquerque and has been served by J. M. Shimer, a student in the State University. I held his fourth Quarterly Conference two weeks ago. I didn't know but what I would have to anchor him down; the membership was almost doubled, the benevolences all taken and all full, the salary well on the way toward being paid—Oh well hunt up Shimer, he'll tell you all about it.

ALAMOGORDO

Alamogordo under the pastorate of E. Le Breton has had a good year. This is the worst over churched town in New Mexico. It has nine churches to 1,500 people. Our church is the largest and most influential. We have had a comfortable growth this year and Bro. Le Breton has been cordially invited to return.

SILVER CITY

Silver City is another point where they have had a change of pastors since Conference. Dr. Stockland who came to this church shortly after I came to New Mexico has proven a splendid fit. He has had much anxiety because of his wife's health but happily she is improving. Silver City charge under our brother's ministry is taking on the character of a Methodist church and is obtaining influence for good in the community. Every interest of the church has been cared for and I anticipate good reports of the work.

COLUMBUS

Our patriarch, brother beloved, whom we all delight to honor, Dr. Albro has had a year of victory at Columbus. It is not his fault that the church at that point is not dedicated. Delays in material have made it necessary to carry that festival into next year, but soon after Conference this will occur and then our brother will be supremely happy.

EL PASO

El Paso is a city of 40,000 people, geographically situated so that it must be the gateway from the Southlands into the United States. There will be at least 100,000 people in that place in less than ten years from the present date. Formerly the immigration was in large majority from the South. This has changed as, in fact it has all over the Southwest and the call for the Methodist Episcopal Church in this growing and destined to be great city is one we cannot afford longer to neglect, if we do it means dishonor and disaster.

Two things have made our success in El Paso precarious. First, the location, our property is so situated that three-fourths of those who attend our services must cross a network of railway tracks that are really dangerous. Our people are not a wealthy folk and it is absolutely impossible for them to situate themselves as the interests of Methodism in that city demand.

What I am about to say may be a heresy, but it is true whatever name it may bear. Either the Church at large should come to the relief of the cause in some of these strategic positions and make success possible or we should draw a line through the land and say, "No relief will be given when you get beyond that line." If I could have adequate aid, I could develop one of the great churches of Methodism in El Paso in the next five years.

Second, the other factor is the treatment those people have have had in the matter of pastors. That we have any people left in El Paso simply proves the undying loyalty of our people composing that church. One of the longest time members of that church recently said to me, "I am getting discouraged, never since I have been a member of this church has the wishes of the church been consulted in the appointment of preachers. We seem to be a kind of side track where men are sent to wait further orders."

The work this year has been badly demoralized by one of these changes. The change occurred without the superintendent of the local church being consulted. They had no intention thereof until it was announced to them that the change was made. The present incumbent is in no way to blame. Under most discouraging conditions he has gotten his hand on the situation, and has done far more than seemed possible in the beginning of his pastorate. He has been hindered by the anxiety natural on account of a sick wife left in another state.

I beg you bishop to take note of this important place and give us the weight of your great influence in doing justice to this needy situation and to this deserving people.

ALBUQUERQUE

Albuquerque, the metropolis of New Mexico has had the most satisfactory year of its history under the pastorate of C. O. Beckman. Naturally this church largely sets the pace for Methodism in this Mission and we have no reason to complain this year.

Last January a union evangelistic effort occurred in this city with the Rev. Dr. Bulgin as director of the forces. For once the religious forces of Albuquerque presented a solid front to the forces of evil. Much opposition was encountered virulent, malicious and deliberately untruthful criticism was indulged in, but in spite of it all there was victory and today evangelical Christianity is a recognized force in this city. Men in Albuquerque know as never before that the Church of Christ is in town and doing business.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has received this year 100 persons on probation and will report a net gain of 94.

A floating indebtedness of $575 has been paid, the parsonage furnished at a cost of $460, and every obligation of the church met in full.

I think this year's work of the church where you are meeting may be summed up as a notable victory.

The work in Albuquerque is wonderfully helped by the deaconess now employed in the charge. This is made possible by the devotion of one family. I wish others in other charges might go and do likewise.

HILLSBORO

Three months since I sent C. H. Boddington to Hillsboro with instructions to form a circuit in Sierra county and the regions 'round about. His work has demonstrated that we need a man there, and in my judgment he is the man:

SANTA RITA

Alfred Knoll spent a month in Santa Rita, Hurley and environs and we must do business in that region this year, longer delay will lose it to Methodism.

There are numerous other places where we should begin work at once. The needs of this country are great, the opportunities can hardly be set forth, one needs to study at first hand in order to appreciate them. It would be a great help to the work in New Mexico if in some way the sense of responsibility for the work on this field could be impressed. We suffer from those who simply use New Mexico as a resting place until something better opens and while I sympathize with brethren in the hardships, the loneliness and other features of the work not altogether pleasant, yet I cannot rid me of the early impression that we Methodist preachers are men under orders and that these orders are, ordinarily, as kindly as the nature of the work will permit; but where they are given it is ours to obey.

I desire to record my thanks for the universal kindness accorded me by preacher folk, and laity. It has made possible and pleasant the work of a big job.

Respectfully submitted,

S. ALONZO BRIGHT.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES

SUPERINTENDENT'S CLAIM

The Committee on apportionment of Superintendent's Claim recommend the basis of apportionment to be the same as last year.

C. O. BECKMAN,
M. O. STOCKLAND.

EDUCATION

The Methodist Episcopal Church believes in Christian education for all her youth and in the best possible intellectual training of our young men for the ministry.

We therefore take pleasure in recommending the Harwood Industrial School for Girls and the Albuquerque Boys' College to our young people of Spanish descent. We call the attention of those who have completed the courses of study in these institutions, and others who are seeking college training to the University of Denver, Baker University and the University of the Southwest as nearby institutions belonging to our own patronizing territory.

We would also recommend the Iliff School of Theology, Garrett Biblical Intsitute and the School of Theology at Boston University, or some one of the other theological schools of the Church, to all young men preparing for the ministry. We especially urge that all Methodist young people leaving home to pursue courses of study in higher institutions of learning, attend our own institutions in preference to those of other denominations or those under the control of the state.

We recommend as visitors to the institutions within this patronizing territory the* following: Henry Van Valkenburgh and Chas. J. Dickey.

We heartily commend the work of the Freedmen's Aid Society and urge the ministers of this Mission to meet in full the apportionment of $200 which has been assigned to us.

E. C. ANDERSON.

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

We believe the Bible is the expressed will of God to His Creatures; That its introduction into the world was divinely ordained; That it is a helpful and companionable book in the homes of the poor, as well as a classic for the scholar and the theologian and that in all countries its influence in the formation of character and as a guide to religious faith can scarcely be overestimated. We wish to commend the efforts of our own church and of other churches, and especially of the American Bible Society in its distribution within the bounds of this state. We also pledge to the American Bible Society our co-operation and support.

C. F. LUCAS,
T. A. WINDSOR.

THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The vast possibilities of New Mexico are uncontested. For many years the people of this territory have been imploring admission into the Sisterhood of States, with the enlarged opportunities this would afford for progress and development. At last this prayer has been heeded and today, New Mexico is crossing the threshold into a position of equal opportunity and equality with the other states of this great Union.

Believing this to be in the wise Providence of Almighty God, we express our profound gratitude to Him for His all-wise help and guidance, and thankfully receive as from His hand the added responsibility and enlarged opportunity —thus placed upon our beloved Church.

We pledge renewed devotion to the Board of Home Mission and Church Extension, and urge upon our people an earnest and consecrated effort in its behalf. Without the timely assistance of this Board our present degree of efficiency would be utterly impossible, and without their continued help our work cannot succeed.

Cases of imperative and immediate need confronts us. The lack of adequate funds prevents our entering new and promising fields, many of which must be occupied at once or be lost to our church. In some instances fields already occupied must be abandoned unless relief can be hastened to them. We are confident that the Board will respond to the limit of its ability, but that must be determined by our response to the claims of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension upon our charges. Let all apportionments be fully met and promptly paid this year.

That the bond of sympathy between the Board and our people may be strengthened. We earnestly invite one of the secretaries to visit our Conference at Raton next year, pledging a hearty welcome.

CHARLES J. DICKEY.

E. L. BAKER.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Our Great Commander said "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." The early Fathers obeyed the command and went forth from that upper room where God had kindled a fire upon the altar of their hearts for the salvation of the lost. The movement thus started will continue until "Righteousness shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea."

From the heathen land the call comes for more laborers for the "fields are white already unto the harvest but the laborers are few."

We earnestly recommend that our Sunday Schools be organized into Mission Schools and that this important cause be kept continually before the children.

We also urge that Mission Study classes be organized that the laity may become thoroughly acquainted with the work and workers in distant lands and be inspired to carry out the Father's wishes for the evangelization of the world. We greatly rejoice in the success of the gospel in Korea and we extend to George Heber Jones our sympathy in the misfortune which has interfered with his work there and pray that God may speedily restore him to his former health and usefulness.

EDWARD LE BRETON.

RESOLUTIONS ON TEMPERANCE

Whereas, Rev. J. I. Seder, State Superintendent of the New Mexico Anti-Saloon League so interestingly addressed conference in behalf of Temperance.

Resolved, that we rejoice in the measure of progress achieved in the closing of saloons by vote and by law-enforcement, and in the growing sentiment for their total abolition.

Resolved, that we renew our pledge of active support to the League, and that in the coming legislature we favor the enactment of a good Local Option Law, including the county as a unit.

Resolved, That we deplore the complicity of the federal government with the liquor traffic in issuing federal licenses to sell liquor in "dry" territory, and that we respectfully request our Representatives in Congress to work and vote for the passage of the Curtis-Sheppard Bill remedying this evil.

Resolved, That we regard with regret and shame the recognition by the national administration of the brewers' congress which is soon to meet in Chicago, and regret that the secretary of state should descend to the level of the saloon business or liquor traffic, and assume to give the sanction of the government to this great evil. We hereby earnestly protest against any such action on the part of a member of the cabinet, and herewith instruct our secretary to forward copies of this resolution to President Taft and Secretaries Knox and Wilson.

M. O. STOCKLAND,
L. F. ATHEY.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

We rejoice in the continued strength of the Epworth League and believe that it still has large capacity for usefulness to the Church.

For the greater efficiency of our Chapters in the Mission we earnestly commend to the careful thought of Chapters and pastors the following:

1st. A more prompt and systematic canvassing for the Epworth Herald.

2nd. That an earnest endeavor be made to organize a Mission Study Class in every League and Bible Study classes wherever possible, also Christian Stewardship classes.

3rd. That the work of the League Institutes be emphasized and plans laid to derive larger help from them by an increased attendance of our young people. In addition to these recommendations we do declare our gratitude to Bishop William A. Quayle, the beloved President of our Epworth League for his splendid articles in the Epworth Herald and his masterful addresses while presiding at our Conferences and for the continued inspiration of his genial and robust personality.

H. VAN VALKENBURGH,
CHAS. J. DICKEY.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

This is an age of progress in religious education. The Sunday School is easily first among the many institutions disseminating this religious instruction. We rejoice at the increasing influence and popularity of the Sunday School and recommend that in all our charges the work of this organization receive the most emphatic emphasis.

The graded lessons now being introduced are proving themselves adaptable to the needs of the various ages represented in our schools and we hereby give them our most hearty endorsement.

We would recommend that a progressive Sunday School program be adopted on every charge so far as possible and that the Sunday School receive the hearty endorsement and co-operation of the whole Church.

C. E. LINDQUIST,
JAMES M. SHIMER.

PERIODICALS

Every public spiriteted and true American patronizes home industries. Every loyal and true Methodist Episcopal Society should use the literature and publications of our Methodist Book Concern. Let every pastor see to it that his society be loyal.

C. O. BECKMAN.

AUDITING SUPERINTENDENT'S ACCOUNTS

The undersigned, your committee, have examined the accounts of the Superintendent of the Mission and have found them correct.

E. C. ANDERSON,
CHAS. J. DICKEY.

EPISCOPAL FUND

It is recommended that the apportionment for the support of Bishops be made on the basis of one per cent of the amount raised for the support of the pastor including house rent.

M. O. STOCKLAND.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

Resolved, That it is the desire of the New Mexico English Mission that the New Mexico English Mission and the New Mexico Spanish Mission Conference be merged into the New Mexico Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. We therefore respectfully memorialize the General Conference, at its next session to grant an enabling act permitting such organization.

E. C. ANDERSON,
ADDIS ALBRO,
B. F. SUMMERS,
C. F. LUCAS,
S. ALONZO BRIGHT.

RESOLUTIONS—MINUTES

Resolved. That in those cases where charges which receive missionary help fail to pay their quota for the publication of the Minutes, the superintendent be authorized to withhold that amount from the missionary appropriation of those charges and pay the sames to the publisher.

S. ALONZO BRIGHT.
B. F. SUMMERS,
M. O. STOCKLAND.

DEACONESS WORK

Resolved, That we recognize the deaconess work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society in the Mission and ask the Conference to appoint a Deaconess Board of nine, to be composed as follows: First year, C. O. Beckman, Mrs. C. O. Beckman, Chas. J. Dickey. Second year, Mrs. D. A. Porterfield, Mrs. S. Alonzo Bright, S. Alonzo Bright. Third year, Mrs. M. O. Stockland, C. F. French, Mrs. J. L. Roe.

E. C. ANDERSON,
C. F. LUCAS,
B. F. SUMMERS,

CONCERNING THE BISHOP, SUPERINTENDENT, CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT, ETC.

Recognizing that the pleasant associations and the renewed impetus which have been ours during this session of our Mission have been largely because of the efficient plans and labors of individuals and local organizations making possible favorable circumstances for our work as a Conference. We therefore most heartily resolve;

First. That we express our deepest appreciation for the presence of our Presiding Bishop William A. Quayle, D. D., LL. D., who presides over us for the third time. His evident grasp of the difficulties and possibilities of this field, his open hearted and brotherly treatment of all, his wise counsels of wisdom, his eloquent setting forth of the larger life for the individual, the Church and man have inspired our desire and strengthened our purpose to be "Master workmen needing not to be ashamed." May the abundant blessing of our God continue upon him in his glorious ministry.

Second. That we have found Rev. S. Alonzo Bright, D. D., our Superintendent a wise man of affairs, mighty in preaching the Word, thorough in the study of this field and untiring in the service of this important office.

Third. That we extend our hearty thanks to the Albuquerque Morning Journal and the Evening Herald for their generous and courteous treatment of our Conference through their columns.

Fourth. That we have found the homes of Albuquerque Methodists places of Christian hospitality. Every comfort has been provided us, for all of which we are profoundly grateful.

Fifth. That to pastor C. O. Beckman and wife, Conference Secretaries, local church organization—all—who have in any way contributed to the comfort and success of this session we extend our thanks.

Signed,

H. VAN VALKENBURGH,
G. E. McCARGAR.

PRESBYTERIAN MINISTER'S

(FOR LIFE INSURANCE)

In the "Insurance Year Book" the Fund outranks all other insurance companies in its low mortality experience, low expenses of management, and large and increasing benefits to policy-holders.

In "1911 Dividends and Net Cost of Insurance" the Fund is shown to carry its insurance at a net cost much lower than that of its nearest competitors.

In the "4th Annual Report of the Carnegie Foundation" and in its chapter on Life Insurance, there is the following statement in reference to the Fund: "Its policy contracts excel in liberality those of any other company, offering greater surrender values, lower interest on loans to policy-holders, lower initial premiums and lower subsequent net costs."

IS WHAT WE USE IN A YEAR IN THE WESTERN METHODIST BOOK CONCERN IN THE MANUFACTURE OF OUR BOOKS AND PERIODICALS. THAT FACT ALONE IS PROOF OF THE SELLING POWER OF GOOD PRINTING. WE ARE THOROUGHLY ALIVE TO THE VALUE OF GOOD PRINTING. We do not refer at all to that quality which is the opposite of cheap and indifferent. Altho' well we might. We are now emphasizing the quality of the contents of our products. Our books are on timely topics. Valuable to the preacher and layman. Written by able authors. Commendable in all respects. Our periodicals are the work of carefully selected Editorial staffs—scholars, thinkers, and experts in their respective lines. What need is there for a Methodist Episcopalian to go elsewhere for his reading for his home, his Sunday school, his Church? We would be satisfied to have the trade of our own people only. How many Methodist Preachers stop to think what this would mean to our Church? A wider field for achievement in our Church work, an increase in comforts for our roll of superannuates. The dividend from the profits of the METHODIST BOOK CONCERN (East and West) this year is $200,000.

Remember, we do good typography, presswork, binding, electrotyping, mailing. We do book, job, and newspaper work in our Manufacturing Department at Cincinnati, which is under the supervision of wide-awake, thoroughly competent men. We combine artistic excellence with a high standard of technical skill. A strong proof of the quality of our work and speed of output is contained in our own publications. Our patrons are educated and waste no time on work that is not effective. We can not say it much more fully in the space of a page—the main thing is the IDEA. We want to impress you with the IDEA that our House is the House for you to come to. We appeal to your loyalty as well as your common sense.
